

10 Reasons why our Philadelphia Addiction Center is your right choice.

1. First visit always free. You'll be able to ask questions get appropriate answers. During this visit, you will be informed in advance about the treatment plan and price.
2. Customized individual treatments. We do not believe in group sessions – We will concentrate all our attention on you and your problems.
3. There are No contracts to sign, no pressure to enroll in long-term programs. No disclaimers with fine print at the Philadelphia Addiction Center.
4. Competitive prices. We do not charge you for CDs that are recommended for you to listen at home. If audio records are beneficial for using between sessions – you will get them for free as a part of the healing process.
5. We are certified, professionals. And this is important. You'll see all our licenses and certifications in the office right before your initial free consultation.
6. We are medical doctors, not just practitioners who provide treatment using holistic medicine.
7. Holistic medicine at the center is not our hobby. We are full-time licensed and certified medical practitioners. Our office located in a prestige shopping plaza next to other health and wellness centers.
8. Our strategy and methodology at the Philadelphia Addiction Center are not limited to any specific methods. We use Acupuncture, Homeopathy, Hypnosis, Reiki, Cupping Therapy, Ear Acupuncture, Acupressure, Magnetic pallets, Moxa and many more techniques. That's why during the initial visit we will discuss with you the best treatment plan.
9. At the Philadelphia Addiction Center, we are not selling anything... During sessions, we will concentrate on patient's medical and psychological conditions only and will not waste your time trying to sell you some additional stuff or signing you up for workshops, classes, training, etc.
10. And the last, but not least... Immediately after the completion of the first visit if you do not feel excited you can cancel your treatment and not pay for it. We never ask you for payment upfront. So, just don't pay for the procedure if you did not like it. Yes, you heard me right. If you do not like the very first session that usually lasts for 1 hour or even more – you can cancel further treatments and NOT PAY FOR THE ONE YOU JUST RECEIVED. No questions asked. We want you to be happy and feel good. Business is business, however, Patients Satisfaction is Our Main Goal.
